

*Individuals from Family datasets have Pedigree role assigned among their attributes

Interactors are Individual/entities which are not sequenced in study. Only its metadata/phenotypic data was collected in relation to the main (sequenced) individual. Interactor is characterized by relation type with the main (sequenced) Individual such as Pathogen, Host, etc

For now these are both in just one object in schema doc "Run-Analysis"